

If we make sure our waters stay clean and unpolluted, fish and wildlife will be there to enjoy in the future.

Name _____
School _____
Grade _____

Name _____
School _____
Grade _____

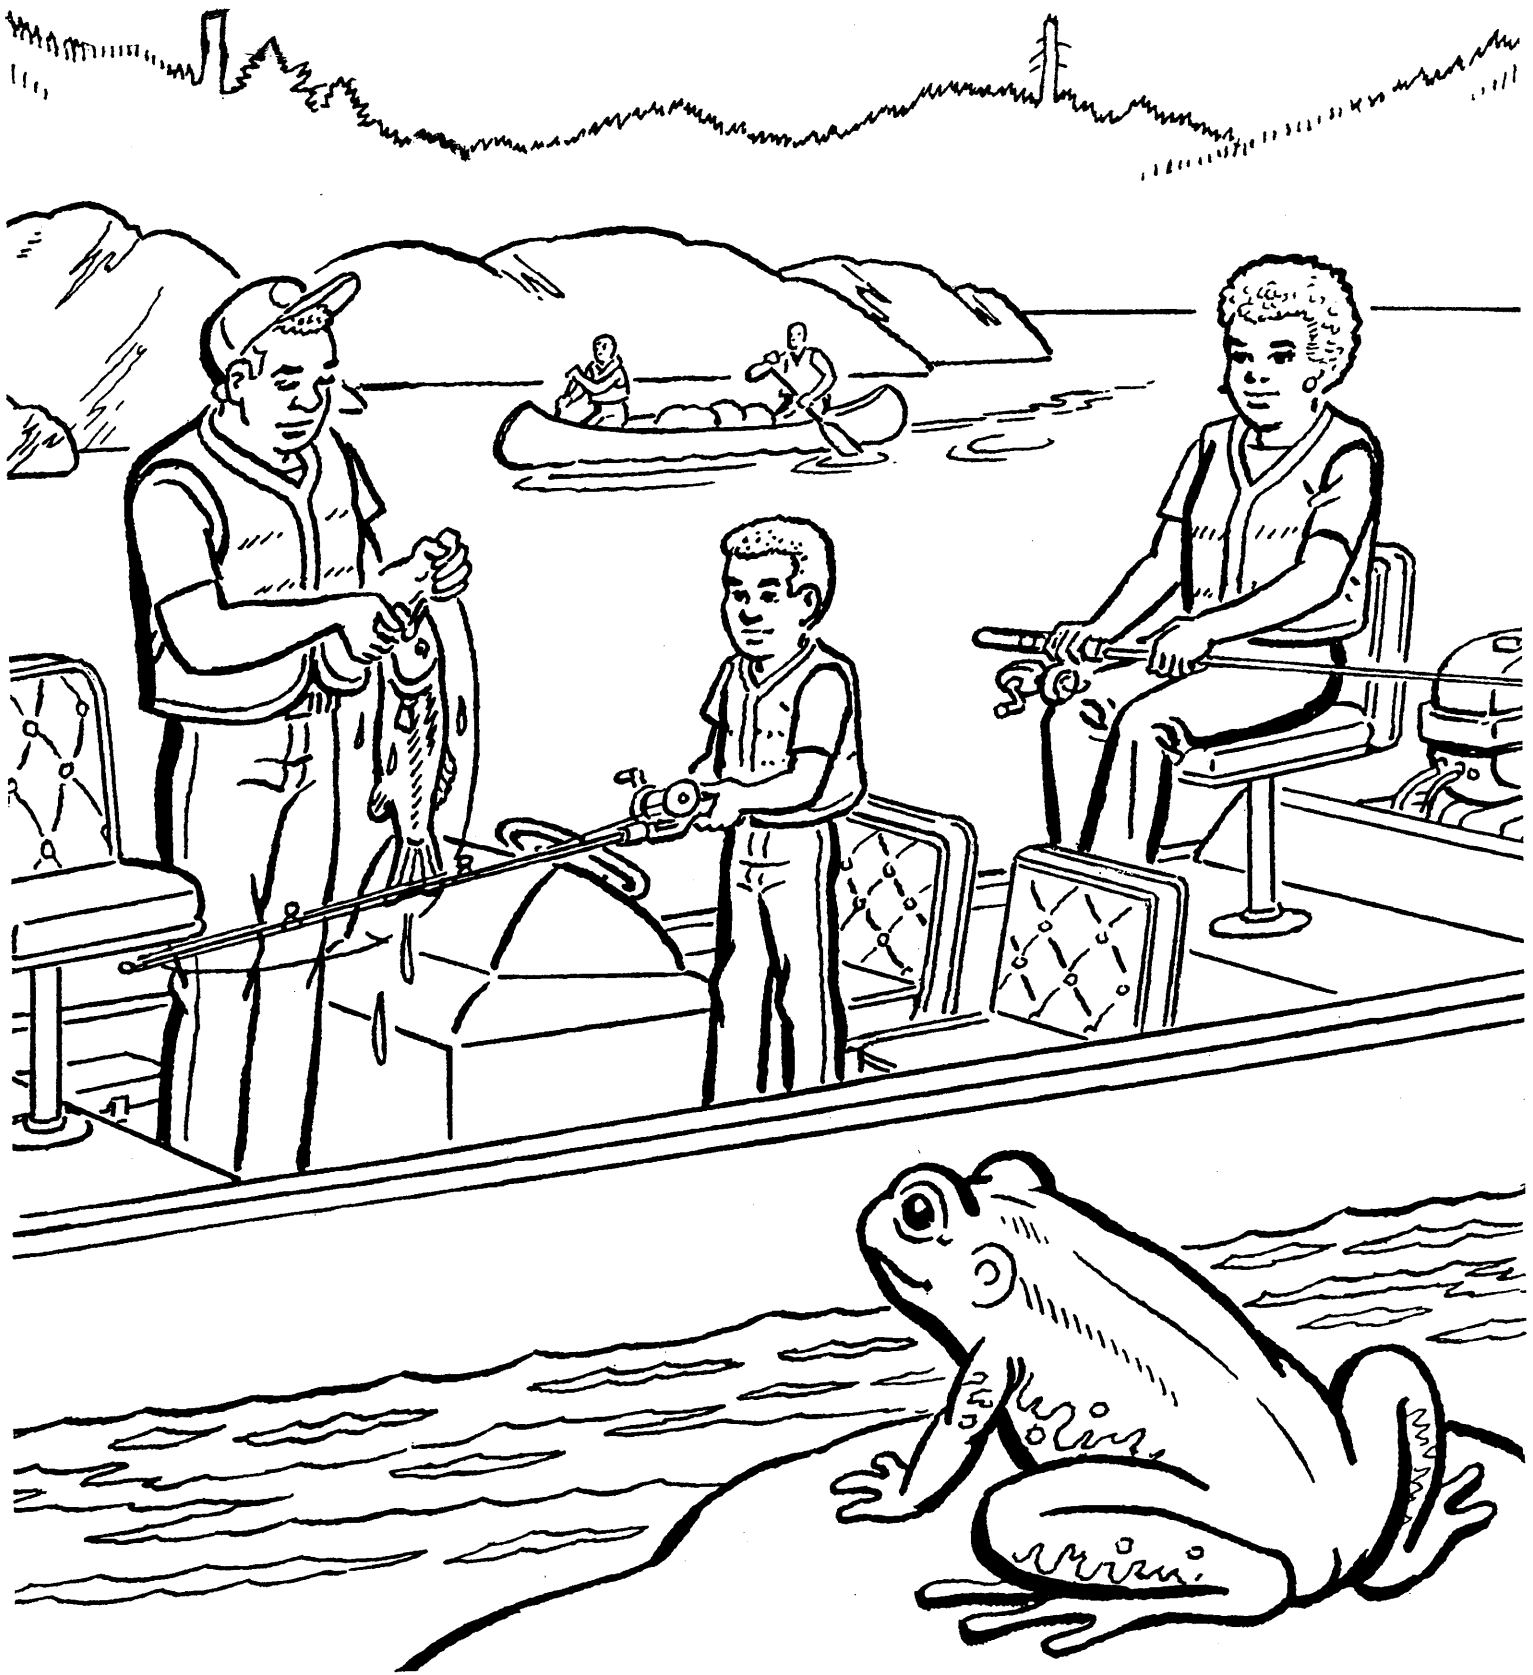

Polluted water destroys the homes of fish and wildlife. Clean water provides what they need and we need for better lives.

Rivers and streams are vital to fish and wildlife. They also offer transportation and recreation opportunities.

Name _____
School _____
Grade _____

Fishing is fun for the whole family.
Nature is not only fun,
but good for you!

Name _____
School _____
Grade _____

Name _____
School _____
Grade _____

Cities and communities across the country are recycling to reduce the amount of trash that is burned or put into landfills; aluminum & steel cans, plastics, glass, and paper.